Cindy

Rhon, I had To a great kid. Had fun these past 7 years.
Too bad you have to move.
But don't forget I'm going down there to ruin your Christmas vacation!
Sharon

Rhoda,

It is a really good thing that you did not have to sit near me all through the year - you wouldn't have made it. (Actually I'm not crampy.) Good luck in whatever you do.

Love, Sherry

Rhonda, It's too bad you're moving I won't have anybody to help me do my homework see ya later Mel

Rhonda,
You're a really good kid and I'll miss you when you're gone to Florida.
Good luck in the future.
P.S. Keep in touch
+ if you ever need any just

Rhonda,
I'm glad to know you are a good kid, keep on tootin' in band
Love Good Luck
Mama

Rhonda,
I might not see you again but you will have fun. Don't forget us and are winter. Have fun.
Don't forget Paula Space Mountain

Rhonda,
Good next year. You'll really need it if you get Hilbert for English again See you next year. Thanks for helping me on those I.S.C.S. Tests Linda 78"

Rhonda -
To a good kid - Thanks for moving!
I'm just kidding!
Remember all of us at Goffstown freezing in the winter!
Love
Jane

Rhonda, your kids are growing up so fast when you're not giggling Wayne

Rhonda, Don't forget to write! You're a great kid!
Keep up the good work!
Love + Luck, Mama

ask know what ask Love
Pauline 78"

Renee, you've been a really good friend with whom I could share my many thoughts. I hope to find as good next year. I hope you have fun living in Florida!!
Loads and loads of love in life.

Love,
Jennie '18

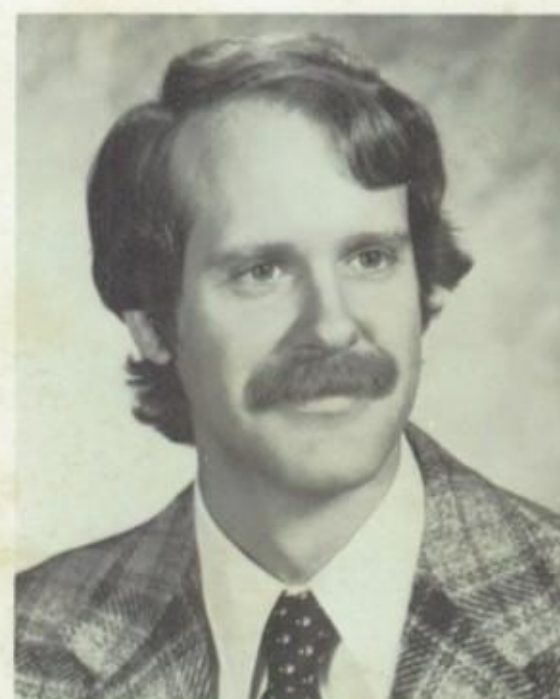

NISA'TIN '78 DEDICATION

As we come to the close of our Senior year We pause to look back on those held dear.
So to those two who helped us
"collect the rent"
Who made sure our money was wisely spent,
Who lifted our morale when the spirit was dragging Who kicked us in the pants when ambition was lagging Who showed us respect and how to work together We'll always be in debt to you "forever and ever."
So with humblest thanks, and appreciation,
We present to Mrs. Moore and Mr. Allen, this dedication.

MRS. MOORE
Class of '78 Advisor

Class Prophecy

IN TEN YEARS:

Will some of the senior guys have learned to park right?

Will John Stone still be trying to grow his beard?

Will Peter Smith still be trying to play a banana?

Will Kevin Gagnon still have "everything under control?"

Will Mr. Allen still be class matchmaker?

Will Kevin and Karen St. John still be dancing together?

Will Kevin Gagnon still be taking Eddie K. to Semi-formals?

Will the clocks and bells work?

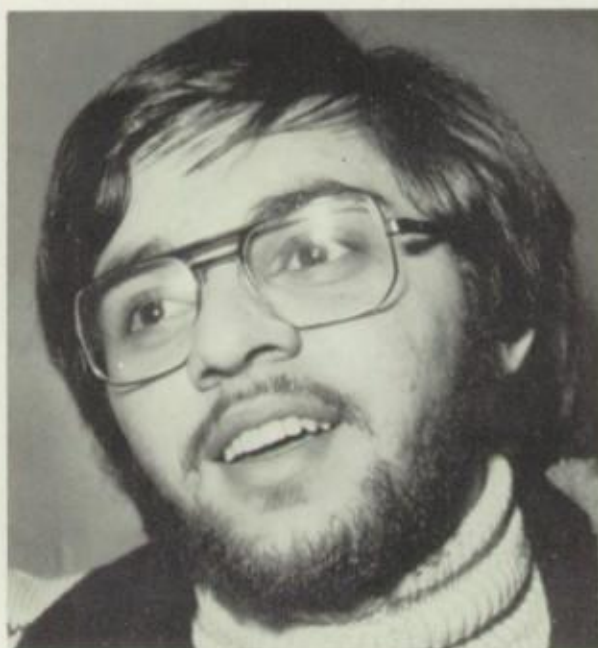

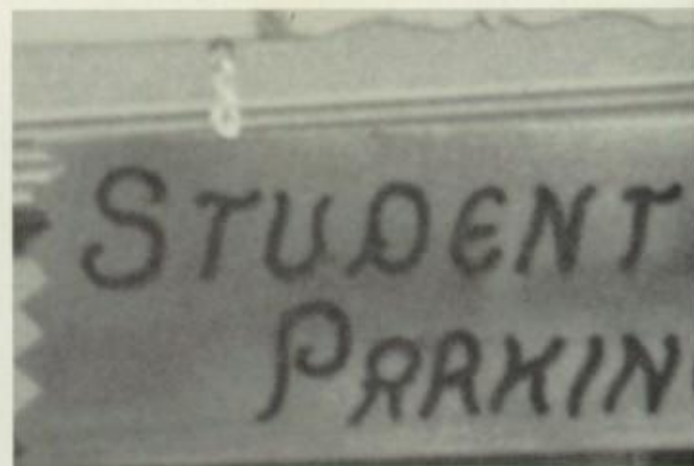

Will Dorcas O'Neil and Kim Charbonneau still be called sisters?

Will Tiner and Riter still be side by side?

Will Mr. Walker still be saying "Come on now class, up here?"

Will the "rebel 500" still be spinning donuts in the parking lot?

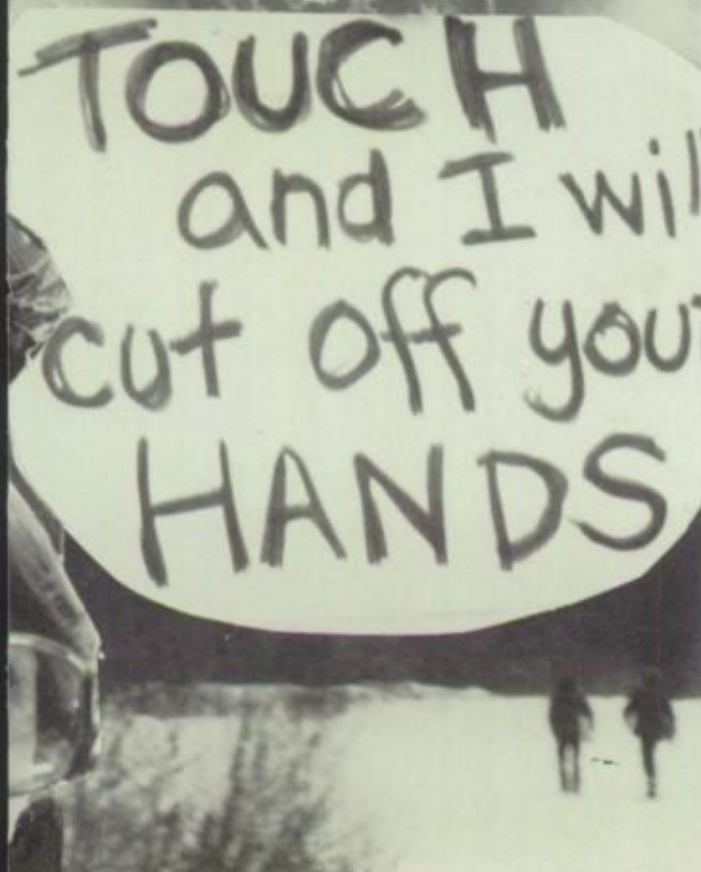

Will Peter Smith still be flirting around?

Rhonda,
HMMM.... Well, the close of another SUPER

Redskin Pride!

Running and hustling with God as their guide the Redskins of Goffstown epitomize pride.

Pride is that pushing, overwhelming urge for that last second drive to that last second surge.

Pride is the factor that motivates teams, so that over the others, one squad always gleams.

It's that driving force that says to go on when chances of winning have long since been gone.

Its optimistic belief that there always is hope when you're losing a game with just minutes to go.

It's that feeling one gets when a big game is done, and your team's done its best whether they've lost or won.

To the players, pride's something you know that they've got; you can tell by their play and their confident strut.

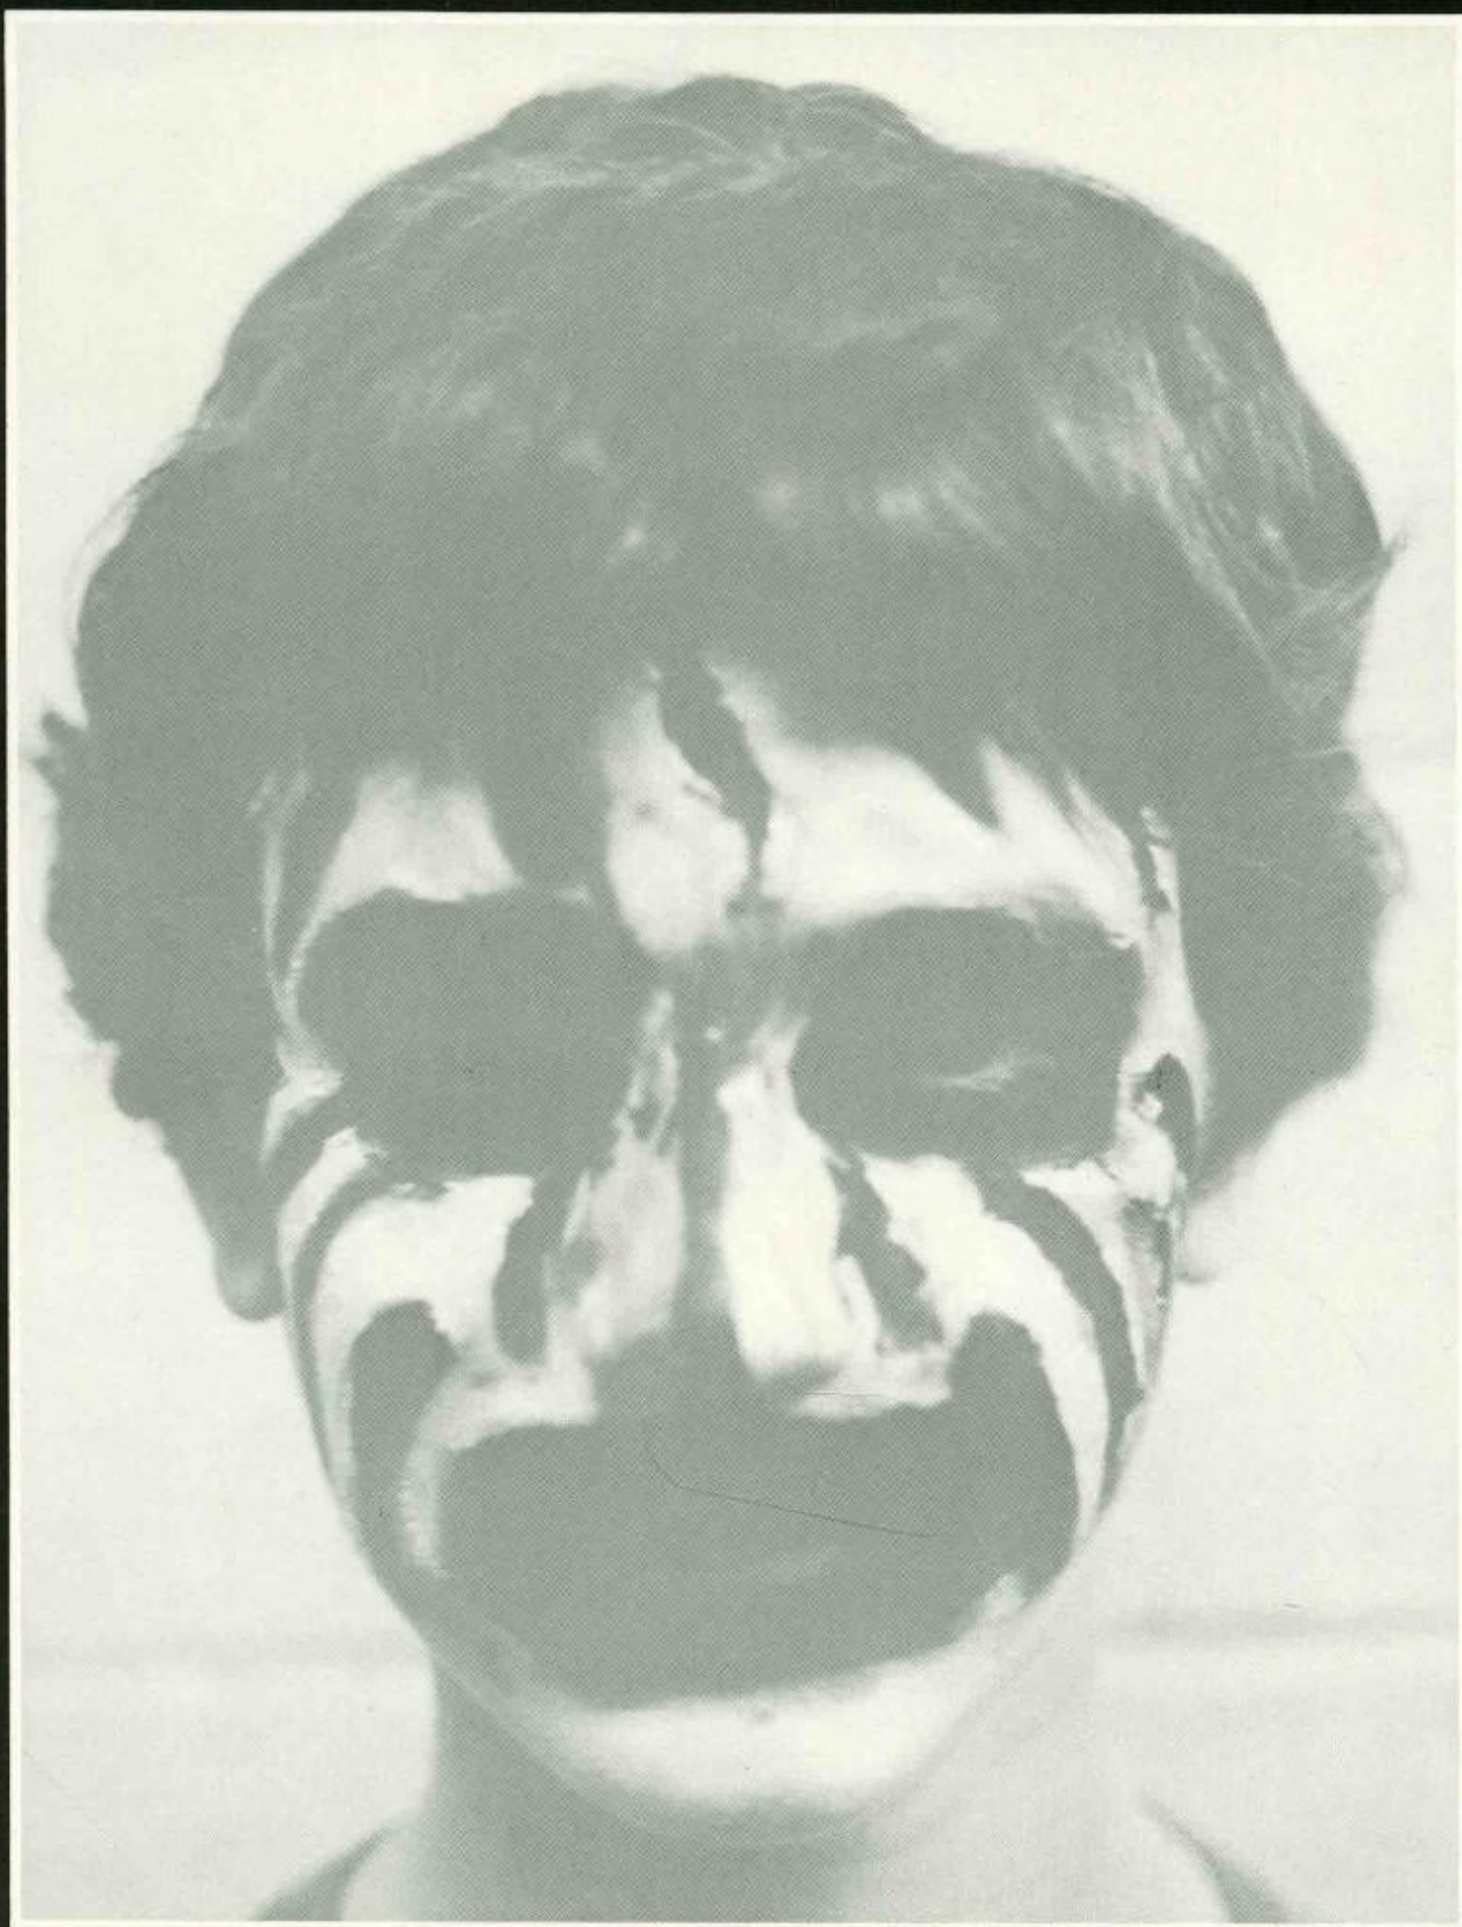

You can tell that it's there when for loose balls they dive when you know that they're tired and they incessantly drive.

When the cheerleaders stir up the Redskins' home crowd, and throughout the full game they get louder than loud.

When the pressure is on with the crowd on their side, that is when Goffstown shows Redskin Pride.

It lifts the athletes morals to the sky cause they know they're performing for our

Freshman Initiation

— Class of 1981 —

On Feb. 18, 1978, Senator Thomas MacIntyre invited a group of NH high school seniors to meet with Pres. Carter at Nashua High School. R. Lukasiak, T. Gage, M. Wason, E. Moore, and S. Decknick, representing GHS, listened to Pres. Carter explain his current political views. On the previous day, the seniors were interviewed by David Hartman of "Good Morning America!"
